It's the 2011 French Creek Council Training Extravaganza!

Training Extravaganza (or Trex) is a one day training event designed to help make your job as a Scout Leader easier, help you be a better leader,

AND

Help your Scouts have a better Scouting year!

All registered Scout Leaders, anyone interested in becoming a Leader, scout parents, or anyone interested in finding out more about the Scout program, are invited to come and enjoy this fun-filled, information-packed day!

You take the courses you need, or want more information on; so that you have the information you "need to succeed". You can choose the courses you think will be interesting, informative, helpful or just plain fun! From Lion Essentials to Cub Scout Leader Specifics to Scoutmaster Specifics; Youth Protection, Den Chief Training, Leave No Trace, Creative Art, Dutch Oven Cooking, Cub Games, Geocaching, and many many more to choose from!

Trex will be held in the Saegertown
High School, in Saegertown, PA.

Registration forms will be available in the Fall. Watch for them in your District Roundtable mailboxes, on the Council web-site, in your e-mail box, and on Facebook-in pdf format! (FCC-Training Extravaganza)

BRING YOUR WHOLE UNIT COMMITTEE!

SEE YOU THERE!

PS- There is a new special collector patch design, and we are sure you will love it!
